Le leadership de Canon en matière de technologie et de solutions d'imagerie, d'optique et de gestion de documents est en grande partie fondé sur les milliers de brevets obtenus par la société au cours de son existence. Pour la seizième année de suite Canon Inc. se classe parmi les trois premières sociétés pour ce qui est du nombre de brevets déposés aux États Unis.

La gamme complète des produits de la société comprend des appareils multifonctions réseau, des copieurs numériques et analogiques (monochromes et polychromes), des imprimantes, des scanners, des systèmes d'archivage d'images, des télécopieurs, des calculatrices, des caméscopes numériques, des appareils photo numériques et analogiques et des objectifs, des semi-conducteurs, de l'équipement de diffusion et d'autres produits industriels spécialisés.
