How to Use This Book

Get the most out of PNN
by using the indexes.

A-Z INDEX

- ◆ If you know the name of the politician or government organization you're interested in, use the A-Z Index. Starting on page 5.

SUBJECT INDEX

- ◆ If you're looking for expertise on a particular topic, turn to the comprehensive Subject Index. Under each subject or issue are all individuals or government organizations associated with that issue. For contact information for an individual or government organization, turn to the indicated page number. Starts on page 18.

RIDING INDEXES

- ◆ When you know the name of a riding, or are looking for a list of MPs or MLAs in a particular province or territory, turn to one of the Riding Indexes.
- ◆ The Federal Ridings Index lists all Members of Parliament by province, with a provincial breakdown of party representation. Begins on page 42.
- ◆ The Provincial Ridings Index lists all members of provincial legislative assemblies, from west to east, with a breakdown of provincial party representation. Starting on page 144.

FREQUENTLY CALLED NUMBERS

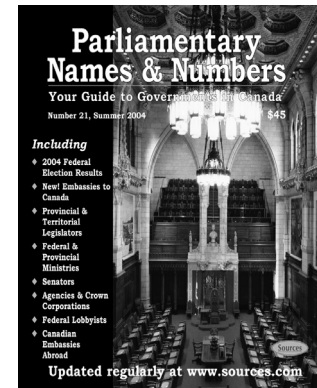

- ◆ A list of the most commonly needed federal phone numbers. On page 2.
- ◆ For important provincial phone numbers, check the Quick Facts box at the beginning of each provincial listing.

MAILING ADDRESSES

- ◆ Mailing addresses are provided in the appropriate section. No stamp is necessary on mail to Members of Parliament, and to the legislators of your province, while the legislative assembly is in session. No stamp is ever necessary if sending mail to a Senator.

E-MAIL/WORLD WIDE WEB

- ◆ If available, each politician or government organization listed has their E-mail address included. World Wide Web sites for ministries, agencies and crown corporations are included with their listings.

Canadian Public POLICY

Analyse de
POLITIKUES

- ◆ Canada's foremost journal examining economic and social policy
