WWF – Canada

245 Eglinton Ave. E., Ste. 410,
Toronto, ON M4P 3J1

WWF-Canada was established as part of the global WWF network in 1967 and currently has offices in Toronto, Northwest Territories, Vancouver, Prince Rupert and Halifax. Our mission is to stop the degradation of the planet's natural environment and to build a future in which humans live in harmony with nature by:

- Conserving the world's biological diversity;
- Ensuring that the use of renewable natural resources is sustainable; and
- Promoting the reduction of pollution and wasteful consumption

Our conservation programs focus on climate change, the marine environment, forests and freshwater, the Mackenzie Valley, the Greater Antilles (Cuba) and endangered species. WWF-Canada employs a range of tools to achieve its conservation results. These include field research, scientific mapping, policy initiatives, market solutions and public education. WWF-Canada works closely with local communities and others who share the common goal of protecting the natural world.

Barrie Zwicker

91 Raglan Ave., Toronto, ON M6C 2K7

Broadcaster and writer Barrie Zwicker has specialized in media criticism since 1970 and has become a leader in the "9/11 truth movement," those who see the evidence surrounding the events of 9/11 as contradicting the official story. The former Globe and Mail, Toronto Star, Vancouver Province, Sudbury Star and Detroit News writer who founded Sources, is producer of the 44-minute video The Great Deception (March 2002) and the 75-minute DVD The Great Conspiracy: The 9/11 News Special You Never Saw (Sept. 2004). His book, Towers of Deception: The Media Cover-up of 9/11 is now available and has just gone into its second printing.
